

HEALTHCARE

AUCKLAND EYE CLINIC

This project consisted of a major addition and alteration to an existing eye clinic in Remuera. The project incorporated seven consulting rooms, two operating theatres and waiting and administration areas. The original building was a 1920s' residential villa and the design team completed an extension that was sympathetic to the original building while expressing the high tech nature of the services provided within.

Auckland Eye Clinic

specialist clinic

